Dear Renee Walker,

Congratulations! I am delighted to inform you that your grant application has been successful, and we have selected your project for funding. Your application Data Sense: Computation Methods for Information Display has been selected as an awardee for Faculty Seed Grant FY24.

You have been awarded $5,000.

As part of the award process, we will be sending you an award agreement in the coming weeks that will outline the terms and conditions of your grant. The award agreement will include information on spending and reimbursement procedures, reporting requirements, and other important details.

Please review the agreement carefully, and if you have any questions or concerns, do not hesitate to contact us. We want to ensure that you have a clear understanding of the terms and conditions of your grant and that you have all the necessary resources to carry out your project successfully.
