End User License Agreement: Desktop Fonts

v2.1

This is a legally binding agreement between the purchaser listed on your order summary ("you") and Signal Type Foundry Limited ("us"). By installing the font or fonts listed in your order summary ("the fonts"), you agree to the terms below. This agreement covers any future upgrades of the fonts, and can only be amended by a written document duly executed by both you and us.

If you're purchasing this license on behalf of an organisation, please notify us, and make sure they understand and accept the terms of this agreement. The legal responsibility for compliance with this agreement remains with you.

Please read this agreement carefully, and save it for future reference.

1. Ownership

This agreement gives you the right to use these fonts, but only as specified below. You don't own the fonts. We do.

2. Copyright

The fonts are copyrighted and contain our intellectual property. You agree to take all reasonable precautions to keep them secure and safe from unauthorised use.

3. This license allows you to do the following:

- Install the fonts for use by a limited number of users specified in your order summary. All these users must belong to a single organisation or household. If you install the fonts on a server, everyone with access to that server counts as a user, whether they use the fonts or not.
- Use the fonts to create printed materials, signage, advertisements, logos, and other static images.
- Embed the fonts into read-only, non-editable. PDFs or similar digital document.
- Import characters from the fonts into a vector drawing program like Adobe Illustrator and modify them as vector drawings to create logotypes and lettering.
- Provide the fonts to freelance designers, printers, service bureaus, or other suppliers, provided they use the fonts exclusively for your work, follow the terms of this license, and delete all copies of the fonts when their work is complete. Freelance designers are counted as users as long as they're using the fonts.

4. You agree never to do the following:

- Sell, rent, share, or make the fonts accessible to anyone not covered by this license, including freelance designers, independent contractors, temporary workers, and clients, except as specified above. If your clients want to use the fonts themselves, even if it's just to produce new versions of your work, they have to purchase their own license.
- Transfer or resell this font license agreement.
- Modify the fonts in any way, including converting from one font format to another, without our written permission.
- Use the fonts to produce websites, apps, e-books, or video games.
- Use the fonts with any technologies which permit third-party access to the font files.
- Use the individual letterforms within the fonts to make letterform-based products for sale. (For example: coffee mugs, T-shirts, or posters; alphabet stencils, stickers, or rubber stamps; rubdown letters; and three-dimensional letters and numbers.) If you want to produce letterform-based products using our fonts, or if you're not sure whether your product would be considered letterform-based, please contact us. You may need a special license.

5. Termination

If you violate this agreement, we can end it without notice and legally require you to delete all copies of your font files. You will not be entitled to a refund. We also have the right to pursue other legal remedies, including suing you for damages. That said, if you exceed the terms of the agreement by accident, we'll always begin by trying to help you to get back in compliance, either by limiting your actual usage or upgrading your license.

You can only terminate this license if you demonstrate, in the first 30 days after purchasing the license, that the fonts themselves are technically flawed. If this happens, and we can't fix the problem, we'll refund your licensing fee, provided you delete all copies of the fonts.

6. Liability

We work very hard to make our fonts technically impeccable. Nevertheless, they are delivered "as is," without warranty of any kind. You assume the entire risk of the quality and performance of the fonts. You waive both the implied warranty of fitness and the implied warranty against infringement of third-party rights. Our liability for costs, damages, or other losses arising from use of the fonts—including third-party claims against you—is strictly limited to a refund of the licensing fee.

7. Separability

If any part of this agreement turns out to be unenforceable, the rest remains in force.

8. Governing Law

This contract is governed by the laws of the Republic of Ireland.

If you have questions, or want to upgrade your license, please feel free to email us at hello@signalfoundry.com.
